

CONDO PROTEGO ACHIEVES SYMANTEC DATA PROTECTION MASTER SPECIALIZATION

Condo Protego Recognised by Symantec for Consulting Services Expertise in Data Protection

DUBAI, UAE — XX March, 2011 — Condo Protego today announced that it has achieved Symantec Master Specialization in the area of data protection. Symantec Master Specializations recognize partners with the expertise, commitment and proven ability to deliver Symantec solutions to the highest standards. Symantec Master Specialists achieve their exclusive status by meeting certain requirements that demonstrate knowledge, proficiency and the ability to deliver consulting services to Symantec best practices.

“At Condo Protego we only focus on solutions in which we have complete capability to design, implement and support,” commented Savitha Bhaskar, Condo Protego’s general manager. “Therefore we are naturally delighted to have become the first Symantec partner in their Emerging Markets region to have achieved this new, much more comprehensive and detailed level of certification, where these skills sets are closely scrutinized.”

“The data protection Master Specialization was designed to recognize partners’ advanced consulting, technical, and service capabilities in the specialized solution area,” said Jason Ellis, VP of Channel Sales, EMEA at Symantec. “Master Specialist partners have demonstrated deep investment in Symantec and an expertise in delivering solutions and services that protect customers’ most critical information.”

Symantec Specialisations, which recognise partners with a proven expertise in a particular area of business, provide partners with the skills and experience required to deliver differentiated service to their customers. Symantec partners achieve Specialisation by meeting certain requirements that deepen their knowledge and proficiency in a solution family, and Specialised Symantec partners receive exclusive benefits as a result of their investment.
